Independent Auditors' Report

Member
RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC
St. Louis, Missouri

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC as of May 31, 2006, and the related statements of operations and changes in member's equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC as of May 31, 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule 1 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC, a Missouri Limited Liability Company (the "Company"), was formed as a single member limited liability company under the laws of the State of Missouri on August 9, 2000. The Company is wholly owned by RubinBrown LLP (the "Parent"), a CPA firm.

Nature of Operations

The Company offers investment company products on an application-way or subscription basis. Investment products offered include private placement stock and limited partnership offerings. The Company also offers merger and acquisition services regarding valuations, financial forecasts and projections, strategic planning, market research and financing alternatives. There have been no significant operations of the Company through May 31, 2006 other than start-up expenditures, professional fees, and regulatory registration fees.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

No provision has been made for income taxes since the Company has elected to operate as a partnership for tax purposes and the income or loss of the Company is included in the income tax return of the member.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

B. RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

The Company is not obligated to report under the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 15c3-3 since it does not maintain customer accounts or hold securities. Therefore, the Company does not have a reserve requirement nor does it have any information relating to the possession or control requirement under Rule 15c3-3.

C. CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the net capital rules of the SEC. Under these rules, a broker-dealer may not engage in any securities transaction at a time when its "aggregate indebtedness" exceeds by 15 times its "net capital," as those terms are defined by the rules. At May 31, 2006, the Company's net capital was $7,880 while required net capital was $5,000. The Company has no aggregate indebtedness at May 31, 2006.

D. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has executed a written expense-sharing agreement with its Parent outlining the allocation of shared expenses incurred for rent, clerical services, technology, professional services, etc. The agreement states that the Company is not responsible for repaying any of the shared expenses. The Parent will pay for all such specified overhead expenses, including compensation of the manager, and the Company will pay only for its own direct operating expenses. In accordance with the terms of this agreement, the Company has recorded the liability for the audit of $1,800 at May 31, 2006 as a capital contribution as such liability is the responsibility of the Parent.

Independent Auditors' Supplementary
Report on Internal Control

Member
RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC
St. Louis, Missouri

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of RubinBrown Brokerage Services, LLC (the Company) for the year ended May 31, 2006, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following: (1) making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, (2) recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 and (3) complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at May 31, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Member, management, the SEC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered broker-dealers, and should not be used for any other purpose.
